Story from Feroz's perspective

Story from Spike's perspective

The Literacy Tower's paired fiction offer pairs of related stories written from two different character perspectives. At higher levels, six paired fiction are also written in different time periods. For example: Level 27 The Forbidden Cupboard (present) paired with Level 28 The Chronomobile Mystery (past).

Paired Fiction provide unique instruction opportunities to:

- compare and contrast characters, events and settings
- inspire creativity and imagination in students' writing
- develop curriculum language and literacy skills in context.

Story from the granddaughter's perspective –
present time period

Story from the
grandfather's perspective –
past time period

paired with

(left) Twin reads
The Preposterous Problem Parrot
(level 23)

(right) Twin reads
Blackspit, the Buccaneer's Birthday
(level 24)

The Preposterous Problem Parrot (Level 23): a pet shop owner's perspective about her naughty parrot that no-one wants to buy, until three pirates visit.

Blackspit, the Buccaneer's Birthday (Level 24): story from the three pirates perspectives who buy the naughty parrot, the perfect gift for Blackspit.

Bark Baxter Bark! (Level 23): story from Baxter the dog's perspective about his problems sharing the backyard with Lionel, the sly snake.

Lionel, the Sly Snake (Level 24): story from Lionel the sly snake's perspective about his problems sharing the backyard with Baxter and other animals.
